Fans and Spectator Code Of Conduct

Burning River Lacrosse asks that as a parent you be involved in a positive way. Attend your child's games as often as you can. Cheer for all the kids on the team. However please remember the following:

1. Please don't shout advice to your player during the game.

Shout encouragement? You bet. A steady stream of technique suggestions, though, has no value.

2. Don't harass the referee.

Sometimes a call is hard to take for whatever reason. Such times are tests of emotional control. If a player can learn to bite their lip and move on, a parent can learn to sit quietly for a moment and let the emotion pass. Learning to cope with disappointment is a valuable life skill.

3. Don't razz the other team's players or your own son

The other team's players (or your son) should be considered off limits. Yelling at or deriding someone else's child (or your own) is a shameful practice for an adult at a sporting event. In that vein, anyone found shouting, yelling, berating, and/or belittling a player will be removed from the site immediately. They will then be duct taped to a tree and all the kids will be allowed to take shots at them until their mood changes. Seriously though let the kids play without having to worry about getting yelled at. They should develop a love of the game which will only come if they can relax and enjoy themselves.
