Requests To Play Up: Every league we receive requests from players to play in the next level up. At one time we tried to honor all those requests. However, after reviewing how those players did we realized we needed to step in and restore some sensibility to the situation before people had a bad experience or got hurt. Therefore, unless you have made one of our travel teams, we will not honor your request to play up at the start of the league. If you want, we will evaluate you over the first two weeks and then make a decision to move you up at that point. Thank you for your understanding on this matter.
