

Dear Parents,

Quick heads up as we roll into summer...

We use TeamSnap for everything—schedules, updates, changes, and the occasional “hey... where are you?” message.

If you’re not getting alerts, something’s off. Either TeamSnap is ignoring you (unlikely), or more realistically, you’re not connected to the right team.

Shoot us a message (gcalleri@truelacrosse.com or 216.373.5684) and we’ll get you squared away. Trust me, you don’t want to be the family finding out about a schedule change from the parking lot.

Let’s keep everyone in the loop and where they’re supposed to be—at the right field, at the right time.

Thanks,

Coach Calleri
